DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Petitioner submitted his request for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain aspects of petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner amends his application for attorneys' fees and costs to $83,600.00. On December 23, 2014, respondent's counsel emailed the undersigned's law clerk, reciting these events and stating that respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel asserts that petitioner did not incur any costs in pursuit of his petition.

Accordingly, the court awards $83,600.00, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Law Offices of Jay A. Bansal for $83,600.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
